

In favor of rules to require more diverse ownership than currently. I do not like what happened to AM radio, with announcers in one place pretending to be local to each city. I do not want to see the same consolidation in TV. Also want diverse owners in a local area among TV radio and newspapers. There is already too much of a one message news media.